

Outbound Dialling Compliance Guide

This document provides high-level guidance for agents conducting outbound calls in the insurance sector.

Agents must clearly identify themselves and the organisation at the start of every call.

Consent must be recorded and respected in line with UK GDPR and PECR regulations.

If a customer requests no further contact, the agent must apply the Do Not Call disposition immediately.

Calls may be recorded for training and compliance purposes where appropriate disclosure has been given.