

Data Protection and Customer Privacy

Customer data must only be accessed for legitimate business purposes.

Agents must verify the customer's identity before discussing any policy details.

Personal data should never be written down or shared outside approved systems.

Any suspected data breach must be reported to a supervisor immediately.

This guidance supports compliance with UK GDPR and internal information security policies.