

Can you explain what this debt is and where it came from?

We can explain the original creditor, account type, original balance, charges, and the current amount owed.

If you do not recognise the debt, we can place the account on hold and request documentation. No payment is required during investigation.

Suggested agent prompts:

- "Let me explain this step by step."
- "Does the creditor name sound familiar?"
- "If you don't recognise it, we can pause and investigate."
