

Anguilla

Understated Caribbean elegance defines Paradise Resorts Anguilla, positioned along Shoal Bay with discreet boutique styling.

Villa Collection

Beachfront Serenity Suite - 130 sqm - From GBP 1800 per night.

Ocean Terrace Residence - 260 sqm - From GBP 3600 per night.

Shoal Bay Private Estate - 800 sqm - From GBP 15000 per night with full staff.

Signature Restaurants

Azure Sands - Chef Dominic Clarke. Refined Caribbean gastronomy.

Reef House - Chef Elena Marquez. Fresh catch seafood and champagne brunch.

Harbour Flame - Chef Thomas Greene. Prime steakhouse with rare wine collection.

Salt and Citrus - Chef Nadia Johnson. Modern island fusion cuisine.

Spa and Wellness

The spa emphasises oceanfront cabanas, restorative massage and sound healing therapy. Private fitness sessions and beachfront yoga are arranged daily. Wellness consultations can design personalised recovery programmes.

Excursions and Private Experiences

Snorkeling at Shoal Bay, private sailing charters and sunset champagne cruises are highly requested. Guests may also arrange deep sea fishing or island heritage tours. Dolphin encounters are seasonal and coordinated with licensed operators.

Frequently Asked Questions

What defines the experience at Paradise Resorts Anguilla?

Our Anguilla resort is designed for guests seeking privacy, culinary distinction and curated local immersion. Each stay is built around personal preference rather than fixed packages. Weekly investment typically ranges between GBP 15000 and GBP 40000 depending on residence and season.

Are private residences available?

Yes, all primary categories include private pools, expansive outdoor living areas and dedicated host service. Residences are positioned to maximise seclusion and views. Many include separate guest pavilions for multi generational travel.

What culinary standard can guests expect?

Restaurants are led by internationally experienced chefs with fine dining backgrounds. Seasonal tasting menus, wine pairings and private chef evenings are available. Local ingredients are elevated with contemporary technique.

Are wellness retreats offered?

Multi day retreats combine therapeutic spa treatments, nutritional consultation and guided mindfulness. Private yoga and personal training sessions are arranged on request. Wellness itineraries are curated before arrival.

Is the property suitable for high profile guests?

Discretion is central to our service philosophy. Private access points and optional security coordination can be arranged. Staff operate under strict confidentiality standards.

What adventure activities are available?

Experiences range from guided snorkeling and marine safaris to helicopter tours and cultural exploration. Private yacht charters are popular for full day discovery. Each excursion is managed by vetted specialists.

Are family stays supported?

Select residences are configured for families and extended groups. Educational cultural and marine programmes are available for younger guests. Private childcare can be arranged in residence.

What arrival services are included?

VIP airport meet and greet and private transfers are arranged for all signature bookings. Options vary by destination and may include helicopter or luxury vehicle. Luggage handling is fully coordinated.

Can the resort be exclusively reserved?

Full property buyouts are available subject to season and notice period. Dedicated event planning teams coordinate weddings and private celebrations. Privacy and operational continuity are prioritised.

What are the minimum stay requirements?

Minimum stays range from three to seven nights depending on season. Festive periods may require extended bookings. Terms are confirmed clearly before deposit.

Seasonal Cancellation Policy

Low Season 7 day cancellation. High Season 21 day cancellation. Festive 45 day non refundable.