Frequently Asked Questions

What distinguishes Paradise Resorts Maldives?

Our Maldives property blends architectural elegance with immersive local character. Each stay is tailored around privacy, culinary excellence and curated experiences. Guests typically invest £15,000–£40,000 per week for our signature residences.

Are private pool villas available?

Yes, all primary categories feature temperature-controlled infinity pools and expansive outdoor decks. Villas are positioned for maximum seclusion and uninterrupted views. Dedicated hosts provide discreet yet attentive service.

Is the resort suitable for high-profile guests?

Absolutely. Our team is trained in discretion and confidentiality protocols. Private access routes and optional security coordination can be arranged.

What dining standard can guests expect?

Our restaurants are led by internationally trained chefs with Michelin pedigree backgrounds. Seasonal tasting menus and sommelier pairings are central to the experience. Private chef evenings are available in-villa.

Are wellness retreats offered?

Yes, multi-day retreats include nutritional consultation, guided breathwork and therapeutic spa rituals. Oceanfront yoga and personal training are curated privately. Wellness itineraries are tailored before arrival.

What marine or adventure activities are available?

Experiences range from snorkeling safaris to private yacht charters. Helicopter tours and bespoke cultural immersions are also offered. Every excursion is operated by vetted expert guides.

Is family travel supported?

Select residences are designed for multi-generational stays. Educational marine or cultural programmes are available for younger guests. Private childcare can be arranged.

What airport services are included?

VIP fast-track arrival and dedicated transfers are standard in signature bookings. Options include helicopter, seaplane or private yacht transfers depending on destination. Luggage is managed seamlessly.

Are exclusive buyouts possible?

Yes, full-resort buyouts can be arranged for weddings or corporate retreats. Privacy and brand alignment are managed by a dedicated events director. Availability varies by season.

What is the minimum stay requirement?

Minimum stays vary between 3–7 nights depending on season. Festive periods may require extended bookings. Our concierge confirms terms prior to deposit.
